

TOM RHEA HAS PROVEN FRIEND TO TAXPAYERS OF KENTUCKY

Played Important Part In Forcing Large Corporations to Pay Their Just Proportion of Taxes and is Best Qualified In Every Way for Auditorship

It is natural and proper that the Democrats of Kentucky should take a deep interest in the selection of their candidate for Governor on August 7, but they should not allow that race to overshadow all others and cause them to neglect or overlook other important races. Especially should they give their attention to the Auditor's race, for that position ranks in importance next to that of Governor.

The Auditor is the head of the fiscal affairs of the state and the head of the important Board of Franchise Assessments which fixes the franchise valuations upon which all corporations doing business in the state must pay taxes. The work of that board is of far-reaching importance to the people, and, above all others, the Auditor, who presides as chairman of the board, should be a man well equipped and trained for its difficult duties, and one who is incorruptible and fearless, ready to compel the corporations to pay their just part of the revenues of the state, without being unjust to any corporation or persons.

Such a man is Thos. S. Rhea, who is asking the nomination from the Democratic party, and there is not a man in Kentucky better qualified for the position or more deserving of the support of the Democrats. As State Treasurer for nearly four years in the present administration, he has been a member of that board and a leading spirit in its splendid work. With his intelligent and active assistance, the franchise assessments upon corporations have been so increased that the state is now receiving several hundred thousand dollars more in revenue every year than ever before. The board has increased the franchise valuation upon all corporations from $48,000,000 to $132,000,000. Four of the largest railroad companies, whose assessments were raised, have carried it into the courts; and, if the courts uphold the action of the board, the increased revenue, together with the large increase from other corporations, which have not contested the raises, will be a great help to the taxpayers, and in a reasonable time aid materially in paying off the indebtedness of the state.

In the four years of this administration, the increase of revenues from the increased assessments of those corporations, which have not made contests, will alone amount to a sum to the state far in excess of a million dollars; and the increase of revenues from the same sources to the counties, cities, towns and school districts will amount

ANOTHER LIE NAILED

The whisky people have found that it is useless to defend their business on moral grounds. They have also worn out the "personal liberty" slogan without results. Therefore they are making their last stand by appealing "to the cupidity of the human animal" through the threat of higher taxes.

But even here they can't make their points and tell the truth. You have seen what they have published about West Virginia. Now listen:

Fred O. Blue, STATE TAX COMMISSIONER of West Virginia, says:

Our fiscal year begins July 1st and ends June 30th. For the fiscal year beginning July 1st, 1912, and ending June 30th, 1913, the State had a deficit of $480,000. Now please note that during the year referred to, the State collected as much revenue from liquor sources as were ever collected in one year. THE DEFICIT REFERRED TO WAS THE BEGINNING OF OUR FINANCIAL TROUBLES. Prohibition did not come into effect in West Virginia until July 1st, 1914.

The Legislature recently provided ample revenue to take care of the deficit and all necessary expenditures of government and for the maintenance of the State institutions.

In West Virginia the deficit was made UNDER WHISKEY. In Kentucky a deficit of several millions has been made UNDER WHISKEY—under the shameful extravagance and waste which the domination of the saloon in politics always means. NOW they have the NERVE to come and tell us that if we vote whisky out it will raise our taxes.—Woodford Sun.

NEGRO IS SENTENCED TO ELECTRIC CHAIR

Wallace Smothers, the negro who outraged little Georgia Baird, seven years old, at her home near Winchester, was sentenced to the electric chair by a jury in the Circuit Court there last week. The negro showed no emotion whatever.

The testimony of the little girl moved the big crowd in the court house to tears. Sheriff Gilbert was on hand with special deputies, as was also Chief of Police McCord, to see that no demonstration against the negro was attempted should a life sentence be given.

ADVICE TO BOYS

Don't be careless of your personal appearance, as it counts for much either for or against you. Not that you must always wear expensive clothing, but the little details are important. Clean hands and face, combed hair and brushed clothes do not cost a cent.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed, it is swollen, and the hearing is lost. When it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and this tube cannot be restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by Catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Democratic Editors See Victory for Claude B. Terrell In Race for Nomination for State Treasurer In August Primary Election.

If there is one contest in the approaching Democratic State primary election about which the Democratic newspapers of Kentucky seem to be agreed it is that the Hon. Claude B. Terrell, of Trimble County, should and will be nominated for the office of State Treasurer. Mr. Terrell has made a runaway race of it from the day he entered the contest. His especial fitness for the office he is seeking has appealed to the Democratic editors of every section of Kentucky, and they have done much to mold the sentiment of their communities in his favor by informing the people as to the character of the man and his qualifications for public service. Herewith are quoted brief paragraphs taken from editorials of newspapers published in every section of Kentucky. It would require not less than two pages of a newspaper to publish in full these unsolicited words of commendation of Mr. Terrell and his candidacy:

The Calloway Times: He has served three terms in the Legislature, two as Speaker, and is a clean, fair-minded, sober and discreet man. He will poll a splendid vote in this county next month.

The Ballard County Advance: Mr. Terrell is a man well equipped for this important office and will make a splendid official. He is a man you like better the more you see him.

Paducah News-Democrat: He is a substantial business man, and is held in the highest esteem by all who know him, and has many friends in this section of Kentucky who will give him their support.

The Princeton Leader: While here Mr. Terrell met a large number of our people and made a very favorable impression. He is well equipped from an official standpoint to fill the office of State Treasurer.

Fulton Daily Leader: He is a staunch Democrat, is familiar with the public affairs of the State by virtue of his commanding position the past few years in the legislature and is well fitted in every way to make the people of Kentucky a faithful State Treasurer and guardian of the funds of the commonwealth.

Clinton Gazette: Mr. Terrell has made a reputation as a man who is to be depended upon to do exactly what he promises to do.

Arlington Courier: A better man cannot be found for this place. He is self-made, public spirited, and a friend to the working man.

Mayfield Messenger: He is a great friend to education and a constant fighter for good roads. With him as State Treasurer the people can be assured that the affairs of that office will be conducted honestly and according to law.

Bowling Green Times-Journal: Mr. Terrell will add strength to the ticket selected next month, and it is gratifying to know that his nomination is a certainty.

Bowling Green News: The press of the state is loud in its praise of him as a Democrat, a high-class gentleman and an honorable incorruptible man of fine business and executive ability and one who never has and never will betray a trust either in private or public life.

Todd County Progress: Mr. Terrell enjoys a wide acquaintance in the state, made a splendid Speaker of the House, and is a man of winning personality.

Smith's Grove Times: The county papers over the state are giving Terrell their support, and it is likely that he will carry the state by a larger majority than most candidates.

Cloverport News: He is a man who has made good in all his public trusts. He is a man well equipped for the office he is asking.

Springfield Sun: The manner in which he conducted the affairs of his great trust as Speaker won for him many strong friends over the state, who are now endeavoring to endorse his valuable service.

New Haven Echo: He is of the younger set of business men and possesses the push that has always been lacking in the state, and has been so much needed.

Shepherdsville News: He helped to enact more constructive laws than any other Speaker who has presided over the House in fifty years. He is by far the ablest and strongest man seeking the Treasurership.

Breckenridge News: The Big Sandy News pays a very fine compliment to Claude B. Terrell. The beauty about it is that 'tis true.

CLAUDE B. TERRELL

Kentucky Standard: He has been closely associated with the educational interest of the state for many years, and popular education has no stronger advocate.

Hartford Herald: He is splendidly qualified, as his service in office has brought him close to the interests of the people.

Estill Tribune: He is a conservative business man in whom the people can trust with implicit faith and his loyalty and work for Democratic success entitles him to recognition by the party.

Danville Messenger: Mr. Terrell has gained much strength over the state, especially during the past two weeks, and his nomination seems assured.

Henry County Local: His career has been prominent and noteworthy of the sterling character of this splendid young man. It behooves the Democrats to remember him on election day.

Owenton News-Herald: It should be a pleasure to Owen County Democrats to cast their votes for him. He will make a safe and efficient Treasurer.

Woodford Blue Grass Clipper: None of the candidates are receiving more favorable mention. From every quarter come reports of the great favor in which his candidacy is held.

Louisville Evening Post: Mr. Terrell is running on a record that seems invincible. His friends say the nomination is certain, and the honor will be most fitly and properly bestowed.

Louisville Journal of Labor: Citizens of Kentucky should certainly appreciate his efforts and evidence their appreciation by nominating this splendid worker for the public good. He is meeting with great success daily and his candidacy grows in public favor constantly.

Boone County Recorder: His prospect for receiving the nomination is very good. He is a Sixth District boy, and we are all for him.

Falmouth Pendletonian: His greatest strength is where he is best known, which is the strongest evidence of a man's worth, and for this high office he has no superiors.

Carrollton Democrat: All who know him seem to be for him. Trimble County is fated to have a representative among our state officials the coming four years.

Grant County News: There is no blot on his escutcheon as a lawmaker and a faithful servant of the people, and he now comes with clean hands seeking a state office. We have no doubt he will reflect credit.

Uniontown Telegram: Besides his ability which qualifies him to efficiently conduct the duties of Treasurer, he is a native Union countian, which makes a strong appeal to us.

Schree Banner: The ticket needs strength to win in November, and Claude B. Terrell will add much along that line. Webster County voters can well afford to support him.

Pembroke Journal: Terrell looks like a winner. He has the support of the leading newspapers of the state. In all official positions he has served his constituents faithfully.

Big Sandy News: In Eastern Kentucky Mr. Terrell is very strong. No citizen who wants clean men in important offices will make any mistake in voting for him.

Hazel Green Herald: No Democrat can possibly make a mistake in voting for Terrell, for he has been tried in many positions of honor and trust and never yet has he been found wanting.

Robertson Advance: He does not permit politics to make of him a selfish or biased man. He is able to take care of the Treasurer's office, and he will carry this county.

Ewing Enquirer: He is widely known as a man of ability, as a promoter of the good roads movement and all educational matters. He is worthy of the support of any man who wants to place the right man in the right place.

Russell Times: Democrats want men nominated that will bring strength to the ticket in the general election. They will make no mistake in nominating Terrell for Treasurer.

Whitesburg Mountain Eagle: As State Treasurer he will be "at home," and besides doing much good for his constituents he will be in part repaid for the excellent work he has already done for Kentucky.

Pike County News: A most excellent gentleman and fully qualified for the office he seeks.
